

One More Song

in memory of Dave Heyse

Edward L. Stauff, Nov. 1993

G Am

1. Well you know the last few ho - urs have gone by much too fast and
2. Songs of lov - ers, songs of work - ers, songs of joy and songs of pain, some
3. With a voice that's grow - ing hoars - er and with fing - ers weak and sore I'll

G/B C G/B Am Am7/G

all too soon I'll have to face that long drive home at last.
songs I nev - er heard be - fore, though I hope I will a - gain.
pluck these ti - red strings and sing for just a mo - ment more.

D/F# D Em Em7/D

The chil - dren all are sleep - ing, one's head is on my thigh,
Some filled the room with laugh - ter, some filled my eyes with tears,
I can't tell if you're sleep - ing, you've closed your wea - ry eyes, but I would lis - ten one more time be - fore we say good - bye. Sing me just and some were old, old fav - rites that I have - n't heard for years.

C G/B Am D

so I will sing you peace - ful rest un - til the next sun - rise.

C D C G/B Am G C G/B Am G Em

one more song, not too short and not too long, some-thing sim - ple I can sing, something

Am D C D C G/B Am G ea - sy I can play. Play me just one more tune, let your voic - es fill the room,

C G/B Am G Am D G

some - thing I'll re - mem - ber and take with me on my way.